

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates.

Diversity in media ownership is essential to democracy. If you allow all the media to be owned by a couple of corporate conglomerates democracy is over in this country. It is already hard to get real information in the mainstream media that doesn't conform to the government line or the corporate agenda. Don't make it worse.
